It's been ten years, that you've been gone,
It certainly doesn't seem that long.

Wasn't it yesterday when you stopped by
With those beautiful smiles, just to say hi?

Didn't we all just go fishing at the lake,
And didn't we bake Sara a birthday cake?

Those memories are as fresh as yesterday,
But how our hearts broke when you went away.

The pain that we feel is softer now,
But living without you?
We're still learning how.

Love and miss you both so much.
